The Greatest of Trotting Meetings.

In this issue appears the advertisement calling attention to Kentucky's great trotting meeting at Lexington, October 5 & 14. The programmes are ready and will be mailed those who apply, as will the full list of entries and schedules of the race. The Association has offered $50,000 for the races and secured the best horses in the whole country; yet it has generously set aside the gate receipts of the first, second and third days for the two hospitals and the Orphan Asylum, known as The Charity Organization, in Lexington.

The programme is before us and it is an attractive one, full of variety and excellent in arrangement. Horsemen pronounce that it is the best ever issued and predict that it will be a Grand Representative Stake ($50,000) Saturday, Oct. 8; The Transylvania Stake ($6,000) Monday Oct. 10; the Free-for-all purse ($2,000), Wednesday, Oct. 12, and the $6,000 Special Stake Friday, Oct. 14. The meeting will be the grandest contests ever witnessed.

The great event, however, of the meeting is to be the Transylvania, in which 20 horses, all able to trot in 2½ or better, are eligible to start. Among them are the following: 2½: Byland T. 2½; Little Albert, 2½; Ponc de Leon, 2½; Paragon, 2½; Cincinnati and return October 11th to 1½, $3.63. Account I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge. Paris and return September 27th and 28th, $1.20. Account Orphan Brigade, Chicago, and return October 17, 18 and 19, $20. Account Worlds' Fair cerebration.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tresscott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Malaria, followed up with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then a friend sent her to New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles; was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at PHIL. CARPENTER'S Drug Store.

Nervous Prostration.

A large manufacturer, whose affairs were very much embarrassed, and who was overworked and broken down with nervous prostration, went to a celebrated specialist. He was told that the only thing needed was to be relieved of care and worry, and have a change of thought. This doctor was most considerate of his patient's health, though in bad financial circumstances. He ought to have advised him to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the best remedy for nervous prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, headache, ill effects of spirit, tobacco, coffee, opium, &c. This stands testily to cure. Books and trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's. 6

FRANKFORT, SEPT. 24, 1892.

PENITENTIARY MATTERS.

Statistics and Reformation of Convicts.

Rev. W. B. Cooper, Prison Chaplain, in a chance conversation recently, substantially said that he would estimate that at least twenty percent of the convicts in this penitentiary are susceptible to complete and permanent reformation. By this he said he meant they will not only become good and useful citizens after the expiration of their terms, but members of the church and earnest followers of the teachings of Christ. He thought the number could be considerably increased if the State would adopt the graded or class system instead of the present mode of confinement and commingling in one prison of all classes, from the youth to the aged and crime-hardened villain. Besides the young criminals, who have committed their first offense, there are a large number of older men in the penitentiary who were good citizens until in a moment of weakness they were overpowered by sudden temptation or provocation. Though all mankind are prone to sin, all are not born under like conditions of body and circumstances, nor subjected to such supreme trials, perhaps, as made criminals of many of these prisoners, but that is the greater reason why faith can be placed in the reformation of a man who has been unfortunate and not inherently base. His fall and punishment have awakened him to a sense of his weakness and the need of a support from a higher source than man can furnish him and naturally he enters the church, a most repentant and earnest searcher for light and strength to guide him.

Such large results in this life without even a consideration of the life hereafter are worth striving for at any cost or sacrifice and the State can not begin too soon on the House of Reform for Juvenile offenders as the Constitution contemplated, and perhaps a later day may open the eyes of the Legislature to further needed grading and classification of the prisoners.

THE FRANKFORT PENITENTIARY.

The last weekly report of Warden Norman to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shows the condition of this penitentiary as follows:

Number prisoners last report, 897
Number received during week 16

— 913

Deduct No. discharged by expiration of time 10
Number in penitentiary Saturday 17th inst. 903

These prisoners are employed as follows:

Inside the walls	838
On farms	42
In hospital on beds	5
Able to sit or walk	20

THE CENSUS OF CONVICTS AND PAUPERS.
The last United States census shows that in 1880 the population of the country was 62,622,250 and that there were 46,233 convicts in the penitentiaries, or one convict for every 722 inhabitants. In addition to this, there were 19,538 prisoners confined in the county or city jails, making a total of 64,761 people under the sentence of the law.

The census also shows that there were 73,045 paupers in poor-houses dependent on State, county or city aid, 50,741 of whom were males and 32,304 females. Of these Kentucky had 1,578 paupers in the list. Much of this pauperism was the offspring of crime and intemperance.

Country Fire.

On Monday night the tobacco barn of Mr. John Rossell, who lives several miles from the city, on the Bald Knob pike, together with two tenement houses on the place, was destroyed by fire. The tobacco barn had about 15,000 pounds of old tobacco in it, all of which was destroyed. One of the tenements was occupied by Mr. Lanny Flynn, who had nearly all of his furniture, but Mrs. Jane Foster, who occupied the other, lost all of her possessions except one bed and some bedding. The loss, all told, is estimated at $3,000, with $2,000 insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to be incendiary. The flames were so bright and so distinctly seen in this city that many supposed the fire to begin Bellpoint and an alarm was about to be turned in when it was discovered that the light came from the hill beyond that town.

The True Laxative Principle

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Fig, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

A Foul Stench.

After the rain Wednesday afternoon the fifth which had collected in the alley that runs through from Main street to Broadway, along the east side of the Capital Hotel property, ran out in a stream at the west end of the L & N. depot, covering the railroad track and crossing and causing a sickening stench to arise that was almost intolerable to persons passing along the sidewalk. The Board of Health should have the alley cleaned up and disinfected at once.

Franklin Association.

The minutes of the Franklin Baptist Association now ready for distribution, show some facts that will be of interest to many readers of this paper.

The Association embraces fifteen churches in Franklin county, one in Owen county and one in Henry county. For the association year which closed August 1st, the churches report 2,100 members, fifteen Sunday schools, 113 baptisms, $6,463.55 for current expenses and general benevolences and a property valuation of $33,200.00. The next annual meeting will be with the Bethel Church, on Wednesday before the fourth Sunday in August 1893.

An Old Patent.

A few days ago Mrs. John E. Miles came into possession of an old piece of furniture—a chest of drawers, desk and book case combined—which had belonged to her grandfather, William Strother Hawkins, of Woodford county. It has been in the family a hundred years or more. Mrs. Miles, on examining the desk closely, became convinced it had secret apartments. She sent for a workman and they found three small secret recesses, but they were empty. One drawer in the desk, however, was so tightly closed it had to be opened with tools. It contained old papers dating back to 1803 and 1813. One, a land patent, granting to W. H. Hawkins eight hundred and ninety-five acres of land in Ohio, near Cincinnati, and mentioning it as his part of four thousand acres of land given by Congress to his father, Capt. Moses Nerve, for services rendered in the Continental Army of Virginia. (Capt. Hawkins' wife was Susan or Sukey Strother, aunt of Gen. Zachery Taylor). The patent is on parchment, perfectly preserved and was signed in 1803 by Thomas Jefferson, President, James Madison, Secretary of State, and W. D. Dearborn, Secretary of War. Mrs. Miles values the papers very highly as relics, but will investigate the land claim.

ALONZO BROOKSHIRE.

A Desperate Murderer in Prison for Life.

Sheriff Lyons, of Menifee county, on Tuesday afternoon brought to the penitentiary, Alonzo Brookshire, the twenty-one-year-old murderer of Jaller Tipton and Constable Howard of Montgomery county, whom Brookshire killed while the officers were attempting to arrest him. Armed mobs pursued Brookshire and endeavored to lynch him ever since he was first apprehended and jailed, but his keepers continued to outwit the mob by removing him to Lexington, from which place he was taken to Frenchburg Monday and tried and given a life sentence and put on the first train that came along to bring him to the penitentiary here. It claimed that the first train was headed for Catlettsburg, but that didn't daunt the Sheriff who boarded it with his prisoner and three guards just as the mob arrived in the opposite quarter of the town. From Catlettsburg the party went to Covington and thence to Lexington and this city. Brookshire, on the trip, was heavily ironed and had a rope around his waist and fastened to one of the guards to prevent escape. The roundabout route and number of guards to bring the prisoner to the penitentiary were deemed necessary by the Judge of the Court, but the law, unfortunately for the Sheriff, would not allow the Auditor to pay him for more than one guard and the mileage by the most direct route to Frankfort.

The Depot Nuisance.

If the city authorities are in earnest in abating nuisances, both in point of morals and the sanitary condition of the city, they will not pause in their work until the saloon and lunch holes in the old market house at the depot are removed. Their offense is rank and it smells to Heaven, and the citizens are in danger of contamination from the pestilential vapors of language and natural filth that assail them on their way to and from the depot. To ladies, it requires more courage than to pass through the valley of the shadow of death, and if the citizens who have wives and daughters who are likely to be subjected to the ordeal at any time, will take the matter in hand and demand the abatement of the nuisance, the city council will not be slow to heed the warning order. These gentlemanly trustees of the city's welfare will soon be put in the scales by the people and their merits duly compared and tested, and it would be well with them if they showed a proper appreciation of the continuous complaint which the people have been raising over this stinking disgrace to decent community in the land. We must show that we respect ourselves, if we would command the respect of others, and with these foul and festering sores at our city's gate, no visitor can enter without passing a severe stricture upon the unclean and unhealthy condition of a person who would tolerate them. Assemble citizens and take prompt action looking to the correction of these evils.

Mrs. H. E. Wellman,

No. 2 Lincoln Street, Janesville, Wis., under date of June 15, writes the following: Kenyon & Thomas, Sirs: I was confined to my bed four months with an inflammation of the right ovary; had a good physician, but he did not cure me, so very little help, until I tried Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, about four months ago. It has done wonders for me. I can do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe that it will entirely cure me. I am also using Dr. Hale's Household Tea with good results. Sincerely yours,

Mrs. H. E. WELLMAN,

The Nabobs.

The smiles and songs of Henshaw are as a beam of sunlight and as the rippling of water. The women take with the satisfaction that do their carolans. He is ever welcome, and leaves behind a pleasant memory. The support of jolly Teu Broek is as exhilarating as wine. These mirth makers and their company played to the matinee audience, and records it again and again last night. It would be a vivified taste indeed that could not find in "The Nabobs" something to please and amuse. It is a musical medley and a dramatic mixture. The long run of the New Orleans production of its merits—Birmingham Age-Herald.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, SEPT. 24, 1892.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Report of President Williams and Superintendent Rhoads.

The report of President U. V. Williams, of the Board of Trustees, Superintendant McHenry Rhoads and the Principals of the West End and Colored Public Schools of Frankfort from January 1, 1891, to June 30, 1892, is out and ready for distribution to the friends and patrons of the schools. President Williams says the success of the schools for the period mentioned has been remarkable. He recommends that Trigonometry, Surveying, Book-keeping, Commercial Arithmetic and English Grammar reviewed, be added to the course in the High School. He regards the school in the West End as a success, and desires its continuance. In the highest terms of praise of the kindergarten department, and is hopeful that the generosity of some public spirited citizen will endow an industrial school to complete the educational system of the public schools of the city. Prof. Rhoads discusses the various departments and studies at greater length than President Williams, and furnishes the course of study and a number of tables of statistics on the attendance and other points of information affecting the interests of the schools. Prof. Jasper Dalton, of the West End school, reviews his labors for the year, and Prof. Wm. H. Mayo, of the Colored School, gives an outline of the history of the colored public school, the work it has accomplished and his experiences of the past year's session. In addition to all this, the report includes the rules and regulations of the Board of Trustees, and a financial exhibit from which it is noted that for the white school from January 1, 1891, to July 1, 1892, there was expended $19,839.61; that the average cost per pupil, based on current expenses and census list, was $8.18, but based on total enrollment, $11.63. The colored school for the same period cost $7,173.59. The board holds $60,000 in six per cent. bonds of the city of Frankfort.

Pupils living outside of the city are charged as follows: One, $20; two, $35; three, $45 and four pupils, $50. Colored pupils are charged half of the foregoing rate.

Altogether the report is comprehensive and most creditable in its representation of the workings of the educational branch of the city government, for which the Board of Trustees and Superintendent Rhoads and the various teachers in the schools have justly earned the commendation of the people.

Residence of Attorney-General Hendrick.

The handsomest residence in the county, and perhaps the equal of the finest in the State, has just been finished and occupied by Attorney-General W. J. Hendrick and his family. It is on the site and includes a part of the dwelling in which Mr. E. P. Bryan lived near Jones Station, and is a perfect model of colonial architecture.

The main part of the house consists of the hall and a cross hall behind, which is the added portion, which, beginning with the ground floor, consists of dining room, kitchen, china closet and laundry. On the second floor, bed chambers immediately over the rooms of the first floor, and gentleman's bath room. The third floor contains the school-room, servant's rooms and gymnasium or ball-room. In front of the cross hall, and to the left of the main hall, as you enter, are the two parlors, and on the right the reception room and breakfast room, the latter being connected by the pantry to the kitchen. On the second floor, above the parlors, are the library and two bed-rooms, and on the opposite side of the hall the chamber of Mrs. Hendrick and nursery, with ladies' bath-room attached. The entire house, from the cross hall on one side to the intersection of the gallery, with the cross hall on the other side, is surrounded by a gallery fifteen feet wide and conforming to the general contour of the house. There is a tower on the south-east corner extending throughout the first and second stories, which affords in its elevation above the roof a magnificent view of the surrounding country. The interior is entirely finished in hard wood, the general finish being antique oak, but each room having separate finish in hard wood of its own. Gas and wires for electric lights extend throughout the house, and hot air flues warm the halls as well as each room, which is furnished also with a radiant grate. The house is supplied with hot and cold water by a reservoir immediately beneath the slate roof. Pumps inside the kitchen and laundry force the water from four cisterns into the reservoir. The farm property on which the residence is situated contains 100 acres of the best land in the country.

Mr. McKee Hardy has purchased and taken possession of Dr. W. H. Hall's drug store.

Mr. E. W. Ayres sold one of his farms containing 120 acres, on Saturday, to Mr. Michael Hogan, of Duckers.

Over 100 frame buildings at Rockaway Beach were destroyed by fire Tuesday. A woman was burned to death and the loss on the buildings estimated over $750,000.

Tuesday night, during the rain storm, lightning struck the chimney on Mr. Henry Polsgrove's house in Bellepoint and damage it slightly. A carpet in the house was ruined by soot falling on it.

Mr. Lewis D. Craig, while in the act of stepping from the train at the Forks of Elkhorn Saturday, sustained a painful injury to the tendons of his foot which will likely cause him to step carefully on that foot for some time.

Rev. George O. Barnes is holding protracted meetings in Garrard county. It is said an effort will be made by his many friends and admirers here to induce the distinguished minister to come to this city at an early day and attack the strong-holds of Satan.

Dr. J. G. Birrell, of Croppers Station, was here Wednesday extending invitations to the citizens to attend a Democratic rally and barbecue at that place on October 1st. It is expected that Gov. Brown and Senator Joe Blackburn, among other prominent speakers, will address the people.

Jim Hurst, a white convict from Middlesborough, who has been getting up five o'clock in the morning to open the shops within the walls of the prison, put a plank against the wall Thursday morning and made good his escape. A number of guards and citizens were in pursuit of him all day Thursday, and among the number was Frank Egbert, whose horse stumbled and fell, causing one of the barrels of his pistol to explode and the ball to make a serious wound in the horse's back.

The Commercial Building Trust, of Louisville, through its State organizer, Mr. P. T. Coleman, effected a branch organization in this city Tuesday by the election of the following officers:

Wm. Dunphy, the pioneer cattle king, and one of the wealthiest men in California, died Sunday night.

Two of the O'Nan boys of Sandal, were fined $20 and costs by Squire Dan Moore Monday for selling whisky without license.

The game of base ball Saturday at Lake Park between the Clevelands of this city, and the Peak's Mill Club resulted: Clevelands 16; Peak's Mill 10.

Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, of this district, will address the citizens of this county at the court house on next county court day, Monday, Oct. 3, at 1:30 o'clock p. m.

Vincent Spaninger and Mrs. Josephine Cole, charged with poisoning Mrs. Jas. Austin and Mrs. Ed. Sherrill, of Louisville, were set at liberty Wednesday for want of evidence to convict them.

County Judge Williams on Thursday appointed the Frankfort Safety Vault and Trust Company, administrator of the estate of the late John R. Nutter, whose farm is on Cedar Run, near the Anderson county line.

Anarchist Bergman, who shot and wounded H. C. Frick, Manager of Carnegie's Iron Works, at Homestead, Pennsylvania, was given a sentence this week of twenty-one years in the State prison and one year in the work-house.

The city has purchased five barrels of carbolic acid for use in disinfecting the premises of the poorer class of our citizens, who are not able to purchase disinfectants for their own use. It will be dispensed under the direction of the Board of Health.

A number of the members of Capital Lodge of Odd Fellows, headed by the Frankfort Cornet Band which was engaged to furnish the music for the occasion, went to Eminence Wednesday to attend the dedicatory ceremony of the New Odd Fellows Temple in that town.

It is gratifying news to learn of the improvement in the condition of President Harrison's wife. She has been removed to the White House at Washington City, and the physicians express their belief in her ultimate restoration to fair, if not sound health.

The contract for building the Masonic Temple on Ann street opposite the ladies entrance to the Capital Hotel, was awarded to Mr. Spencer C. Cryer, of this city, for $27,649.92. Work will be begun at once on the building, which, when completed, will be an elegant and imposing structure.

The friends of Prof. E. A. Fellner in this city will be glad to learn that he has received the appointment of local agent for the Equitable Life Assurance Association of New York, one of the three largest and richest insurance companies in the United States. Prof. Fellner is a genial, intelligent gentleman, whose reliability and wide acquaintance can not fail to make him a valuable agent to the company in this city.

Dr. J. N. McCormack, of Bowling Green, Secretary of the State Board of Health and International Board of Health, after inspecting Louisville, declared that it is a hot bed for the propagation of cholera and other disease germs, and said it will take $100,000 to put the city in proper sanitary condition by next spring, when he thinks the greatest danger of a cholera epidemic will exist. The Mayor, City Board of Health and prominent citizens are taking active measures now to give the city a cleaning.

Auditor Norman issued a circular letter yesterday to the county clerks and assessors, and inclosed a copy of the Stephenson Revenue Bill, which postpones the date of the county and State assessment of 1888 from September 15 to November 15, and also makes taxable all property not specifically exempted by the Constitution, and which is almost everything, excepting government and church property.

The Auditor announces in his circular that all the necessary blanks are now being prepared and will be sent out to the proper offices at the earliest practicable moment.

Hurst, the convict whose escape is mentioned on another page of this paper, was captured Thursday night and returned to the prison by Farmer Quarles, who lives six miles out of this city on the Owenton turnpike. He sought employment of Mr. Quarles intendng to flee the county in the night, but before that time Warden

Norman's hand bill announcing the escape of a convict attracted the notice of Mr. Quarles who reported it at the prison, and with Guard Tom Ed. Dailey succeeded in placing Hurst again within the walls.

Apropos, of the recent death of the Quaker poet and hachelor, John G. Whittier, the following lines, which it was said at the time they were first published a number of years ago, were written by him at the request of a young lady for his autograph:

"An ladies, you long to lay a tax
On my poor little paper parcel of fame;
I have no money to pay your tax,
Not one is willing to take my name.
To write and rewrite, till the angels pity,
The weak worth of true Whittier."

The "Orphan" Brigade, Confederate, will hold their annual re-union at Paris on Wednesday next. Every preparation has been made for their entertainment, and a good time is promised all the old veterans who may attend.

Roht Bartlett, charged with the murder of the wife of Dr. Conbley, of Carroll county, was brought to this city Friday night by the Sheriff of Carroll county and placed in the custody of Jailer Miss Williams, for safe keeping. Immediately after the killing of the woman Bartlett disappeared but was captured a month ago in South Dakota and brought back to Kentucky to answer for his crime. It was feared that a mob would execute summary vengeance on him and Judge Montfort, in continuing the case for trial next term, ordered the prisoner sent to Frankfort as a precautionary measure to avert any such unlawful proceeding.

The attraction for women that some men possess is remarkable. Spaniger, who has been on trial in Louisville on the charge of poisoning Mrs. James Austin and Mrs. Ed. Sherrill, not only had one wife living and one dead, but maintained improper relations with a number of other women who were jealous of each other over the attention, which Spaninger paid to them. Now to give emphasis to this power which some men, usually the most unattractive to their fellowmen, have over women, there came to this city Wednesday the two wives of F. E. Rose, the bigamist in the penitentiary, to plead jointly with the Governor for their husband's pardon. One wife was from Louisville and the other from Hamilton, O., and they were introduced to the Governor as Mrs. Rose No. 1 and Mrs. Rose No. 2. The pardon was not granted but the wives together went to the penitentiary and wept over and embraced their recreant husband, and departed for their homes, happier in loving such a man than never to have loved at all.

This city may yet have a battery. Capt. Noel Gaines has been requested by Adjutant General Gross to muster in about thirty or more young men to organize a battery, to consist of two gatling and two field guns. Capt. Gaines has the matter under consideration and will probably accept and take the command of the hattery. If organized the battery will be attached to the Second Regiment, in which Company H., of this city, recently mustered out by reason of the expiration of their term of service, won the colors of the regiment and such signal praise for their bearing and drilling at the encampment here a year ago.

Joseph B. Rucker, editor of the Reporter, of Somerset, Kentucky, and who at one time was an employee of the Yeoman office in this city, was mortally wounded by an unknown assassin Tuesday night. It is supposed that the cause of the shooting was the editor's relentless opposition to the lawlessness that has prevailed in Pulaski county.

Ex-Chief of Police Jno. C. Anderson, whose conduct Rucker has severely criticized, is allowed a reward of $1,000 for information leading to his arrest and conviction. The wounded man died early Tuesday morning. In addition to the reward of $1,000 by county, Gov. Rose offers one of $300 and Rucker's brother-in-law supplements the sum for a total reward of $1,300, making $180 a reward for the perpetrator of the crime.

Right or Wrong.

Which will we have? It does seem as if some folks prefer to have the last condition of the river rather than the first. The perfectly decent and patriotic, totally innocent, and above all, above suspicion, Hootie's Stomach Bitters is the successful candidate for the people's choice, and yet, popular and well known as it is, there are unfortunate who keep it as a secret. The people who keep it as a secret are the ones who keep it as a secret. The well known and long tried remedies of the past are still to be given up, experience in the matter of medication. "The great guide to health," according to the author, "is great patriot of the early revolutionary period, and the exclamation is present with the reader, 'How true!' The author, however, daily has met with the endorsement of people sufficient in number, to sustain his claim to the truth of his statement. Hootie's Stomach Bitters is a great remedy for the cure of the common cold, rheumatism, asthma and bronchitis, accompanied by dyspepsia. Lately it has decided itself and been thoroughly approved as a remedy for 'in-gripes.'

Deaths.

An infant child of Mr. Sam Romans, of Fork's of Elkhorn, died Sunday. Mr. Conrad Pfeiffer, who lived near Lebanon, died Friday and was buried Saturday.

Mrs. M. G. Dean, living near Murray Sulphur Well, died Wednesday night.

Mr. Cline Stiggers died Friday night and his remains were taken to Lebanon for interment.

Mrs. Ellen Ford, aged sixty-six years, died Sunday morning and was buried from the Catholic Church Monday afternoon. She sustained a fracture of the hip in a fall last winter on the icy ground, which with her age made recovery impossible. The deceased was twice married and survived both husbands, leaving a child by each—Mr. Con McCarty and Miss Nellie Ford—both of whom are well known and have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.
